

WEEK 3

CONVERSATION GUIDE

who am i

THIS SERIES

We all want to know who we are — what we're good at, what we're not-so-good at, what makes us unique, and why we matter. Unfortunately, we spend a lot of time (especially as teenagers) creating identities based on all the wrong things. In this 4-week series, you'll help teenagers discover that they will never fully understand who they were created to be apart from the God who created them. He's a God who knows us, who gives us a place to belong, who helps us understand ourselves, and who helps us become everything He has created us to be.

THIS WEEK

THE BIG IDEA

Knowing yourself is connected to knowing your Creator.

THE BIBLE

Ephesians 2:10
Acts 9:1-22

- Describe yourself in one word. Now describe the person to your right in one word (but you can't use the word they chose for themselves).
- Why is it sometimes so difficult to figure out who you are?
- Do you tend to think about yourself using more positive words or negative words? Why?
- What do you think Paul meant when he wrote that you are God's "handiwork," or "masterpiece"?
- What do you think it means for God to have a "plan" or "purpose" for your life?
- What's one way getting to know God can help you get to know yourself better?
- What's one way getting to know yourself can help you get to know God better?
- What's one thing you can do this week to know God, and yourself, better?
