

WEEK 2

CONVERSATION GUIDE

Wrong Right

THIS SERIES

There are injustices all around us. We see injustice in big ways, in small ways, in the world around us, and in our own experiences. In this 4-week series, you'll help students see that God cares deeply about fighting injustice. Then you'll help them discover how they can respond in Jesus' name to injustice by working to right the wrongs they encounter in their lives, their world, and even in their own hearts.

THIS WEEK

THE BIG IDEA

When we're treated unjustly,
God is still just.

THE BIBLE

Genesis 30:22-24, 37:3-4, 39:2,
41:38 & 40, 45:3-8, 50:20

- Has someone in your family ever wronged you? Give an example.
- How do you usually react when someone in your family treats you unfairly?
- If the things that happened to Joseph had happened to you, how do you think you would have responded?
- When Joseph was treated unjustly, what's one way God was still just?
- Have you ever faced a situation that made you question whether or not God really was just? Tell us about it.
- How can believing God is just change the way we respond when we are treated unjustly?
- After this week's conversation, how do you feel challenged to respond differently to injustice?
